I rewrite this booklet annually to help our guests to make the most of their stay with us. Thank goodness our area contains no five star tourist attractions. For the discriminating traveller, however, there is a wealth of interest in the towns and villages of the area, the fine country houses and their collections and the outlying cathedral cities. For the energetic there is a wide range of outdoor activities to be pursued.

The production of the booklet is paid for by local shops who advertise in its pages or appear in our register. They are all chosen by me as establishments which I think our guests would like to visit.

Our market towns are undergoing a period of great change. The coming of supermarkets has wiped most food retail from the high streets and each town has to find a new retail identity.

In addition, some of our most successful outlets such as Top 555 (performance cars) and Goldmark (art) have evolved a significant on-line presence, which more than compensates for loss of trade in the High Street.

Uppingham is developing an alternative model in its quiet way. Antiques, the arts, rugs, bespoke shoes, a classy butcher, a purveyor of wood-burners and a traditional hardware store are all thriving there. Oakham’s renaissance revolves around Mill St, fashion retail and jewellery.

In the 35 years that the book has been published, Hambleton regulars have combed the byways of our region for worthwhile visits and shopping possibilities and occasionally belaboured me for including a duffer.

This guide represents my effort to point you in the right direction in as few words as possible.

Have a good time and please let us know about your discoveries.

Hambleton Hall was built in 1881 as a hunting box by Walter Marshall. Marshall’s fortune was derived from a shipping business, but he came to Rutland to enjoy the foxhunting.

It is hard to imagine today that in Walter Marshall’s time Rutland and Leicestershire had something of the atmosphere of a resort area. Melton Mowbray, the Mecca of fox hunting, meant the same to enthusiasts as St. Moritz might to skiers or St. Tropez to beach-lovers in modern times. Hambleton Hall provided an ideal base for hunting with the Cottesmore, Quorn, Belvoir or Fernie hounds and participation in the intensive social activities centred on Melton, Market Harborough and outlying estates and houses. Many of the more distant hunt meets were reached by installing horses and humans on the train at Oakham station. I have recently acquired Walter Marshall’s hunting map of the region which shows the wide range of their operations.

Some time ago I had the great good fortune to receive, on loan, Walter Marshall’s scrap book. This document consists of a compilation of clippings mostly of a scandalous or scurrilous kind reflecting his interest in gossip, divorces, demi-mondaine girls (some revealing their arms and ankles) and spicy tales from the “pink-un”.

Marshall remained a bachelor and when he died seems best remembered locally for the excellence of his table and cellar, and the convivial if slightly ‘racey’ company that he kept.

He left his house to his younger sister Eva Astley Paston Cooper. Although Eva started life as a keen devotee of the chase, from the age of 50 onwards she presided over a salon of bright young things including Noel Coward, Malcolm Sargent and Charles Scott Moncrieff, who dedicated his translation of Proust to Mrs C.

In his autobiography “Present Indicative” Noel Coward describes Mrs Cooper in the following terms: “Mrs Cooper was gay company. Her principal pleasure was to lie flat on her back upon a mattress in front of the fire and shoot off witticisms in a sort of petulant wail.”

Mrs Cooper’s grand-daughter has suggested that Noel Coward’s rather uncharitable remarks about his benefactor were influenced by the fact that the young Noel was made to spend most of his waking hours here chopping down trees for the good of his health!

After Mrs Cooper’s death Lord Trent, Dr. Brockbank and Major and Mrs Hoare enjoyed the house in their turn until the 1970s brought two big surprises. The creation of Rutland Water in 1976 (to provide water for the inhabitants of Peterborough and Northampton) transformed the outside environment. We transformed the inside in 1979/80. The house has come full circle. As a small hotel and restaurant for discriminating diners and travellers the house has returned to a very similar convivial use to that for which it was built.
The shop, in a mediaeval building in the middle of Stamford, has, for some years, been known as the region’s best source of fine modern & antique jewellery, silver, etc. Climb the stairs to the mediaeval wool hall on the first floor and you enter an Aladdin’s Cave housing some very fine Georgian furniture, clocks, silver etc.

For example: a fine quality engraved glass and silver gilt claret jug, by George Angel, London 1867, a Victorian silver gilt and faceted glass claret jug with applied Griffin finial and a silver mounted, hob-nail cut glass claret jug.

Part of our extensive stock of modern and antique silver claret jugs.

Dawson has a gem room on the ground floor and a silver gallery on the first floor and has expanded the showroom to take in the shop next door.

Oakham is the town closest to Hambleton Hall and it retains much charm and character. In the centre is the old market place with its Buttercross and Stocks. Close by “Oakham Castle” (accessed via the rear of the market place and now from the Burley Road car park) is an exceptionally interesting building, principally, because it is not a castle. It is part of a manor house built soon after 1180 which once stood inside a powerful defensive ring wall. It is the earliest aisled hall of stone in Britain to have survived more or less complete and the earliest secular building in Britain in which we can still appreciate a scheme of figure sculpture. Musicians, a goat playing the rebec, a crouching demon and many other (mostly decapitated) characters were carved by workers of the same school as those who worked on Canterbury Cathedral.

The walls of the Great Hall house a large collection of horseshoes of a more or less ornamental character. The collection is believed to have started in virtue of an ancient right vested in Oakham’s Lord of the Manor viz. “That the first time that any peer of this kingdom shall happen to pass through the precincts of this Lordship, he shall forfeit, as a homage, a shoe from the horse whereon he rideth, unless he redeem it with mony”. Prince Charles handed over his horseshoe in April 2003.

A £2.1 million Heritage Lottery Fund investment for extensive restoration work was completed in May 2016. For more information on this project visit: www.oakhamcastle.org

Stamford is one of the most splendid of English country towns with an astonishing number of fine houses and an impressive 11 churches serving its population of 20,000 and was surprisingly undiscovered until spotted as a suitable location for BBC’s dramatisation of George Eliot’s Middlemarch and the film The Golden Bowl, plus in 2005 Pride and Prejudice.

Its former prosperity owed a great deal to the Roman Road Ermine Street (A1) which, from Roman times until the advent of the railways, carried almost all long distance traffic heading North/South. The coming of the railways in the 19th century brought growth to Grantham and Peterborough, but Stamford, served only by a small branch line, experienced something of a recession.
The result is a town still dominated by Georgian and earlier architecture with its mediaeval churches, Georgian theatre, 16th and 17th Century coaching inns and innumerable stone houses of many periods.

The Hospital of William Browne in Broad Street, is one of the best surviving mediaeval alms-houses in England, set around a beautiful cloister garden. To preserve peace and privacy for the residents, the ancient parts of the almshouse are normally available to visit by guided tour only. Tours can be booked by phone 01780 763153 / 01780 766567. Guided tours cost £3.50 per head: the minimum price for a guided tour is £30.

Burghley House (q.v. page 16) is on the southern edge of town.

Uppingham is the smallest of the local market towns. Quiet and rather old fashioned it has an air of bookishness largely due, I imagine, to its close ties with Uppingham School, which, like Oakham, was founded in 1584 by Archdeacon Robert Johnson. Uppingham’s houses are built from warm, brown ironstone which is quarried locally and they mostly date from the 18th century. Uppingham continues to evolve and now has a significant number of worthwhile Art Galleries and Antique Shops.

Melton Mowbray is about 10 miles distant from us to the north west. Somewhat larger than the others it has a rather more commercial air. Melton is worth a visit if you would enjoy seeing the livestock market (every Tuesday). The “Farmers Market” selling produce and some crafts every Tuesday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday. In addition, on Saturdays there is a small street market. A small antique and bric-a-brac market is also held on Tuesday and Friday. A visit to one of the pubs where the farmers are celebrating a good deal in the market can be combined with a sampling of the region’s chief gastronomic specialities: Melton pie, Stilton cheese and ham. The Samworth Brothers, local pork pie magnates, restored and reopened the distinguished pork pie shop of Dickinson and Morris in Nottingham Street. With an on-site bakery they are turning out some fine pies, Melton Hunt cake as well as Stilton etc. www.meltonmowbraymarket.co.uk

Market Harborough is around 40 minutes from us and a convenient stop en route to Althorp, Kelmarsh Hall and gardens (q.v.page 14) or home. Taking the B664 from Uppingham will lead you through some beautiful countryside. The King’s Army was camped at Market Harborough prior to their defeat by Cromwell’s forces at the Battle of Naseby in 1645. Equestrian activities including the founding of the Fernie Hunt and the National Steeplechase held in the 1860s (the forerunner of the Cheltenham Festival) are prominent features in the area’s history.

Today, Market Harborough is a market town with a mix of individual and high street shops in the many 18th Century buildings. Notable landmarks include the attractive Old Grammar School founded in 1607, the Church of St. Dionysius whose 14th Century broach spire dominates the town, the Union Wharf and Foxton Locks for those keen on water transport history, and our bakery on Church Street.

*General Market Tuesday - Saturday 8.00am - 5.00pm
*Vintage, Retro & Antique Market Wednesday 8.00am – 5.00pm
*Farmers’ Market in the Square 1st Thursday every month.
* Sunday Antiques 10.00am - 4.00pm (closed Easter)

The hotel is beautifully situated in an area of England relatively unexploited for tourism. The villages, mostly stone, have many of the qualities of their Cotswold counterparts but fewer souvenir shops and tea-rooms. Some look particularly neat and have a number of very similar cottages and these are often ‘estate villages’ belonging to the major local landowner.

The landscape reflects the historical and contemporary economics of farming as well as the unusual fox hunting possibilities of the area. The nature of the soil and the above average rainfall made stock farming (sheep and cattle) practically universal until the Second War. The oceans of grass, criss-crossed with thorn hedges supplied the world’s finest conditions for riding after hounds. The traditional involvement of almost all local landlords in hunting accounted for a great many of our woods, planted or at least shaped with fox hunting in mind.

If you notice a strange wavy formation on many of the pasture fields this is the relic of strip-cultivation. Before about 1740 each ‘wave’ was a single small holding belonging to a peasant farmer. In the interest of greater farming efficiency the smallholders were bought out, the land put down to grass and enclosed by thorn hedges and rail fences. Between its original enclosure and now, it has clearly remained pasture, for two or three ploughings would have evened-out the waves.

Drives

A few suggestions for morning or afternoon drives to explore the area are listed below:

1. Take the road from Oakham to Brooke, a tiny village around a triangular green. The church has very rare, old box pews, beautiful panelling and an elaborate 17th century monument. It is a typical example of a village church before Victorian restoration changed many of them into more elaborate places. An undulating road runs through very fertile countryside passing through Ridlington (whose church has a collection of musical instruments of the kind used by Thomas Hardy’s characters in “Under the Greenwood Tree”) to Ayston. This is a tiny estate village, in the shadow of a big house with a church next to it. From Ayston you can continue to Uppingham or return via Belton where the church has strange gargoyles, grotesque heads, from which the rain water spouts. On via Lodddington, another village grouped around a large house to Launde Abbey. Here the road goes through a splendid park where the cows have a nonchalant way of standing in the road. The Abbey’s cafe is open from 9am - 5pm Monday to Saturday and 10am - 3pm on Sunday and recently recommended for soup and sandwiches. Very occasionally closed for ordination retreats. From Launde to Braunston, Oakham and back to Hambleton.

2. Alternatively, from Uppingham you can go to Lyddington, either by car or on foot. From the south end of the village there is a path clearly marked. Lyddington is a long village stretching along the main street and almost orange in colour from its local building stone. The church is very lofty - a rich mediaeval community’s thanks offering - and has a couple of brasses set into the floor. It also has the Bede House next door, originally a residence for the Bishops of Lincoln. The present building dates from 1436 onwards and is open to the public, though it has no furnishings. Return via Harringworth (which has a vast railway viaduct as its backdrop) and South Luffenham. Wing has a turf maze designed as a kind of grass race track on which mediaeval monks used... to perform acts of low-speed grovelling for purposes of penitence. Lyndon, is a good spot to park your car on the village green and take a 5 minute walk around the perimeter of Lyndon Hall, a beautiful compact 17th century house. The walk starts by opening a mysterious oak door set in a fine stone wall. Home via Manton and Egleton.

3. A short expedition to Exton, approximately 5 miles from Hambleton can be accomplished in half an hour or so. From Hambleton, rejoin the main road, turn right and first left at the top of Barnsdale Hill. This takes you down Exton Avenue towards the fine gates at Exton Park. Turn right before you reach the gates towards Exton village and stop before the centre of the village, where you will see a sign for Exton parish church. Leave your car and take the 5 minute walk to the church itself enjoying lovely views of Exton Park and the ruins of an ancient house destroyed by fire in 1810. Although the church is the victim of much 19c restoration, inside you will find a very remarkable collection of monuments recently beautifully restored thanks to an energetic campaign led by The Countess of Gainsborough. To quote Pevsner “there are few churches in England in which English sculpture from the 16th to the 18th Century can be studied so profitably and enjoyed so much as at Exton”.

ELY - LINCOLN - PETERBOROUGH
CAMBRIDGE - SOUTHWELL

A drive to Lincoln combining a look round the Cathedral with some shopping and perhaps a bite of lunch is an excellent outing in the winter months when so many country houses are closed.

I go via the A1 north and the B6403 at Colsterworth which soon becomes Ermine Street, the Roman road which was originally built to ford a great marsh to allow the Roman legions to march to Lincoln without getting their feet wet.

The Norman Cathedral, which is the third largest in England, and nearby Castle dominate the city from their vantage points on top of an extremely steep hill. This requires a fairly sustained effort to climb, but is made easier by the many attractive and interesting shops and studios on the way. For an informal lunch, the Wig and Mitre at the top of Steep Hill is the best bet. On the way back to Hambleton Hall, perhaps there may be time to visit Belton House (q.v. page 17) or Doddington Hall (q.v. page 19).

See www.visitlincoln.com for further details.

Ely (1 hour 15 minutes) a remote fenland town with a most magnificent Romanesque cathedral dominating the flat landscape.

Peterborough (35 minutes) Peterborough Cathedral is one of the most important and best preserved mediaeval buildings in Europe. Because it is in the centre of a modern town otherwise uninteresting to tourists, Peterborough Cathedral has many fewer visitors than it deserves. Cambridge (A five star tourist attraction at last!). Hambleton is not the most obvious base to visit Cambridge (about 1 hour) but we find that an increasing number of our guests do make the easy drive (or take the train, direct from Oakham) to spend a day visiting the colleges and perhaps enjoying sung evensong in Kings (5.30pm Monday to Saturday and 10.30am and 3.30pm on Sunday) it is always best to check with the college.

The Fitzwilliam Museum in Trumpington St. is a delight with fine collections of paintings, antiquities, manuscripts etc.

Sunday & Bank Holidays 12 - 5.00pm

Southwell There are at least two reasons to go to Southwell. England’s least known great church and an extraordinarily unspoilt little town. Apparently the site was chosen as a geographically convenient regional headquarters for the diocese of York. The Minster served as HQ for a posse of Canons who divided up a huge territory to the west and North of Southwell between them. Their “Boardroom” (The Chapterhouse) constructed in 1295 is a splendid chamber with wonderful stone carving.

When I visited the Minster I parked outside the door. Not in a car park or on a yellow line. There just wasn’t anyone else there. The verger spent 20 minutes showing me around. The Nave is Norman (1108) the choir Early English (1234). Guided Heritage Walks available www.visitsouthwell.com

Why not drive to or from Southwell cross-country through the Vale of Belvoir and perhaps pay a visit to St Mary, Bottesford (q.v. page 14). www.southwellminster.org

Southwell is about 45 minutes north of Hambleton and quite near to Newark, a much improved town with some good antique shops.
Northampton

Henry Moore, Graham Sutherland and Charles Rennie Mackintosh. Northampton is not a beautiful metropolis but if any of the above are of interest you could make a detour en route for London or the Cotswolds.

St. Matthew’s church is a large neo-gothic Victorian building on your way into Northampton on the Kettering Road, approximately two miles from the centre of town. Call in to see Moore’s Madonna and Child of 1943 and Graham Sutherland’s Crucifixion of 1946, legacies of an art-loving former vicar.

78 Derngate, celebrated its centenary year in 2017, is a medium sized terraced town house formerly owned by a successful Northampton model manufacturer W.J.Bassett-Lowke. Mackintosh was commissioned in 1916/17 to remodel the house and a great deal of his work remains.

Gardens

Reception have copies of the Good Gardens Guide listing gardens in the area open to the public and details of the gardens open under the National Gardens Scheme.

For those especially keen on gardens I recommend a drive into Northants to visit three excellent gardens situated in the same area. Cottesbrooke Hall, Coton Manor and Kelmarsh Hall.

Barnsdale Gardens, much closer at hand and very handy for our own bakery (q.v. page 40) was created by Geoff Hamilton some years ago as the backdrop to his TV series “Gardeners World”. The gardens consist of some 38 separate small gardens which provide great inspiration for those with gardens of their own of a similar scale. They also have an excellent plant nursery.

Open all year (closed December 24th & 25th) March, April, May, September, October 9.00am - 5.00pm; June, July, August 9.00am - 7.00pm; November to February 10.00am - 4.00pm.
www.barnsdalegardens.co.uk (01572 813200). Admission charges apply for garden visits, entry to nursery and tea rooms are free.

Coton Manor (Open 2nd April to 28th September 2019) Tuesday to Saturday and Bank Holiday weekends, 12 noon - 5.30pm, last admission 4.45pm) provides home-made lunches and teas – so you could start there at lunch time. This is the best large garden in our region. Admission charges apply. www.cotonmanor.co.uk (01604 740219).

At Cottesbrooke the Hall and Gardens are well worth visiting, see entry (q.v. page 15). www.cottesbrookehall.co.uk (01604 505808).
Kelmarsh Hall is a fine Palladian House of 1732. The gardens have had a major injection of energy in recent years involving the restoration of gardens associated with Nancy Lancaster, Sir Geoffrey Jellicoe and others.

The Hall, tearoom and gardens are open set days of the week from 14th April to 27th October 2019. Please check their website www.kelmarsh.com or telephone (01604 686543).

Easton Walled Garden is a new design created recently by Lady Ursula Cholmeley from a very grand garden abandoned in the 1950's.

Open from 3rd March to 27th October 2019 on Wednesdays, Thursdays, Fridays, Sundays, and Bank Holiday Mondays 11.00 am - 4.00 pm.
30th June to 7th July 2019 is Sweet Pea Week.
Autumn Country Market, 8th September 2019.

Haddonstone Show Gardens look more and more impressive each year with structures such as an orangery and a gothic grotto, a new statue walk and great planting overseen by an excellent gardener who makes sure the gardens are worth visiting at all times of year.

Some Local Churches

There are so many good ones within a stones-throw of Hambleton Hall that I have come round to church visiting as a fascinating pastime - especially in winter when domestic buildings are closed. Here are some favourites.

Exton (St Peter & St Paul) The main point of Exton Church is the remarkable monuments inside including Grinling Gibbon's amazing memorial for the Third Viscount Campden. According to Pevsner “There are few churches in England in which English sculpture from the 16th to the 18th Century can be ... enjoyed so much”.

Teigh (Holy Trinity) A very charming and unusual 18th Century Church.

Grantham, Brook St (St Wulframs) Simon Jenkins gives this Church a five star rating for its very fine and tall spire and mediaeval chained library which defeats would-be thieves and borrowers alike by chaining the works to the shelves. Look out for a pair of Peregrine Falcons nesting on the spire!

Brooke (St Peter) Enchanting interior with splendid pews, pulpit, reading desk, screens, etc. dating from the 16th or 17th Century.

Tickencote (St Peter & St Paul) The chancel arch c1160 “a tour de force of shafting and arch decoration wildly overdone and in addition incompetently constructed” Pevsner - Oh well its still standing, unrestored!

Bottesford (St Mary the Virgin) Approximately 4 miles due north of Belvoir Castle, this church houses the tombs of the Dukes and Earls of Rutland and their predecessors from 13th to the 18th Century. It provides a magnificent history of church sculpture, of each age, in one small space. The church is generally open from about 9.00am - 5.00pm. Best to call 01949 842859 to check.
GASTRO PUBS

We are very proud that we have some excellent gastro pubs within 20 minutes drive of Hambleton. The first three are run by ex-Hambleton chefs or hosts.

Hitchen’s Barn, Burley Road, Oakham LE15 6DE
(Louise & Neil Hitchen) Telephone: (01572) 722255.

The Marquess of Exeter, 52 Main Street, Lyddington, Rutland LE15 9LT (Brian Baker) Telephone: (01572) 822477.

The Olive Branch, Main Street, Clipsham, Rutland LE15 7SH
(Ben Jones) Telephone: (01780) 410355
Handy for Stamford, Grimsthorpe, Belton etc.

The Wheatsheaf, 1 Stretton Road, Greetham, Rutland LE15 7NP (Carol & Scott Craddock) Telephone: (01572) 812325.

COUNTRY HOUSES

Many of the most important works of art in Britain are still housed in the great country houses scattered about the land. To see great collections in their proper setting has always seemed to me so much more enjoyable than in the city museums. Many of the most important houses and collections have been open to the public for many years. They have inevitably adjusted themselves to the realities of receiving large numbers of visitors and have a slightly institutional air. For that reason I would recommend that guests who are with us on Sundays or Bank Holidays might explore some of the lesser known houses which are only open at these times and retain the feeling of a private house.

COTTESBROOKE HALL
60 minutes from Hambleton

Telephone: (01604) 505808

This totally lived-in house belongs to a distinguished whisky-distilling dynasty who keep the house and garden in immaculate shape.

The house is a Queen Anne gem of sensible proportions and contains a uniformly splendid collection of which the highlight is the remarkable collection of British Sporting Pictures.

Cottesbrooke is a bit further from Hambleton than many other great houses but it is well worth a detour especially if you are heading south west towards the M1, Oxford, or the Cotswolds and provides a good base for garden visits (see gardens).

(From Hambleton take the A508 south from Market Harborough and turn right at Kelmarsh for Cottesbrooke).

Opening Times 2019

BURGHLEY HOUSE

Mr & Mrs Orlando Rock
Telephone: (01780) 752451
www.burghley.co.uk

15 minutes from Hambleton

Sir William Cecil, the first Lord Burghley was Lord High Treasurer to Queen Elizabeth I. His administrative and financial expertise must have been one of the foundation stones on which her very successful reign was built. Burghley House is a testimony to his remarkable power. A great Elizabethan palace with a magical roof line of minarets, towers and spires approached through a perfect Capability Brown (i.e. 18th Century park). Miranda Rock, granddaughter of the last Marquess, is currently in charge with husband Orlando. In 2007 her mother Lady Victoria Leatham’s last year was marked by the opening of her splendid “Garden of Surprises” designed by George Carter. This wonderful attraction combining a new garden of great style and beauty with a certain amount of action which will amuse young and old. For example... a hand pump operated by the curious visitor fills a huge transparent tube. Once full the water triggers a release mechanism and fuels a spout which douses the unwary spectator.

Tour the State Rooms at your own pace, hire an audio guide, or approach the many helpful guides with any questions. The enormous collection includes more pictures, ceramics, furniture and tapestries than you can absorb.

Each year a special exhibition in the purpose-built “Treasury” shows a selection of smaller objects from the collection. This year’s show features items collected in the 17/18c. “Treasures of the East”, which brings to life fascinating objects used and obtained by two Earls.

“Gruesomely Grubby Gardens at Burghley” Not for grown-ups! Following the success of the Beastly Boring Burghley children’s guidebook and tours, they have Gruesomely Grubby Gardens! Families can enjoy spotting sculptures and understanding how they have been made, discover the grubby insects and gruesome animals that live in the Sculpture Garden while all the time exploring the gardens and solving the puzzles inside.

The Orangery Restaurant is well worth considering for a light lunch or afternoon tea. Open from 10.00am - 5.00pm during house opening season, but may be closed on Fridays for private functions, so please call 01780 761989 to check.

Burghley Park is open to the public until dusk.

There is a full events programme throughout the year including garden tours, concerts for all tastes, a film festival and the horse trials.

BELTON HOUSE

National Trust
Telephone: (01476) 566116
www.nationaltrust.org.uk/belton-house

Belton forms a perfect contrast to Burghley House and was built by master mason William Stanton between 1685-88. It is as formal, compact and harmonious in its proportions as Burghley is rambling and eclectic. Belton was passed to the National Trust from Lord Brownlow in 1984. We would welcome your feedback as to whether Belton has benefitted from former National Trust Chairman, Simon Jenkins' objective to make Trust properties more “user friendly”.

In the past the combination of the blinds and ropes keeping the customers well away from works of art interfered with my enjoyment in some cases. There is some wonderful silver and silver-gilt items on display as well as the fine collection of old masters including two wonderful huge paintings by Hondecoeter of exotic birds etc.

A lakeside walk has also been developed by the N.T. and the splendid boat house has been restored.

DEENE PARK

Mr & Mrs Robert Brudenell
Telephone: (01780) 450278

Deene Park is no exception to the rule that the houses open least are the most interesting to visit.

It has a beautiful, well kept garden, charming rooms which are very much lived-in, and some wonderful pictures and furniture. The 7th Earl of Cardigan (“hero” of Balaclava and the Charge of the Light Brigade), from whom the Brudenells are indirectly descended, was a former owner of Deene and there are a number of pictures and other artefacts which bear witness to the times of this eccentric figure.

Private visits for groups can be arranged by appointment. On a Sunday a visit to Deene could be combined with Elton, which is nearby.

David, 11th Duke of Rutland and his charming wife Emma took over in 1999.

Belvoir has a fantastic site on the edge of a steep escarpment dominating the broad vale to the North. The Manners family was so old, well connected and wealthy even in 1816 when Wyatt built the present castle that one wonders why the design chosen owes so much to swagger and so little to convenience.

Belvoir houses a wonderful collection and the statue garden is always worth a visit.

If you are lucky enough to be here on the right day this together with Grimsthorpe would be my first choice of local ‘statelies’. It is more lived in than many others and one might quite easily see a half finished jigsaw on a fabulous Boulle secretaire! In addition to the wonderful collection of pictures, furniture, clocks, tapestries, etc., two features stick in my mind when I think of Boughton - the marvellous old Buccleuch retainers who act as guardians of the family treasures and the incredible state of repair of carpets, curtains and chair covers - many of them in use - on and off - over the past 300 years.

The current Duke is working hard on some ambitious landscaping and landscape restoration projects and I am intrigued to see his “Orpheus” project.

The Grand Etang, the long forgotten lake which once dominated the principal approach to the house, has been re-dug and filled with clear spring water in which the magnificent north front of the house is magically reflected for the first time in two centuries.

Rockingham is one of the most attractive villages in our area, and the castle with its spectacular hilltop site is most picturesque. The collection is fascinating and contains some surprises like 20th century English pictures and the teas are delicious.

Rockingham now hosts a very full calendar of events such as falconry, jousting, antiques, kite flying etc. They also have a ‘Victorian Christmas’, where you can visit and see how the Victorians celebrated Christmas.

Perhaps you will be puzzled, as to why, when the original fortification was built, about 900 years ago it was arranged so as to face due North. Michael Saunders Watson provided me with one answer. Along the wide valley over which the castle keeps watch runs the river Welland. The Danes and Vikings apparently ran their boats up the river and used it as the base for raids on surrounding country.

Grimsthorpe has been the home of the Willoughby de Eresby family (latterly the Earls of Ancaster) since about 1516 and houses a marvellous collection of pictures, furniture and other works of art. Like many buildings of such antiquity which have been lived in by a wealthy and powerful family, the house combines many architectural styles but Vanbrugh’s north front (1724) and the magnificent double cube entrance hall on their own make a visit worthwhile. Stefa was particularly fascinated by the interior decoration of parts of the house especially John Fowler’s (Colefax and Fowler) work carried out in the 1950s.

If Grimsthorpe happens to be open when you are here it should be almost first choice. In addition, Grimsthorpe is offering cycle hire which provides a great way to explore the magnificent park at one end of which lies a magical grove of very ancient oaks. The house is also handily placed for our favourite gastropub The Olive Branch at Clipsham (q.v. page 15).

Elton Hall owes its origin to a Proby who, like the first Lord Burghley, made himself useful to Queen Elizabeth I. The house is therefore mostly Elizabethan with major 19th century additions.

It is very much lived in and has not been attacked by museumitis which is elsewhere reaching epidemic proportions. Elton's library is of world class and includes Henry VIII's prayer book autographed by the monarch and two of his wives.

Amongst a number of beautiful things, you could not possibly miss a Millais (19c) portrait of a little girl which is to my mind one of the most attractive Victorian portraits anywhere.

Elton has a very worthwhile garden, recently re-planned.

Private parties by appointment between May - September.
Tours from May available by appointment.

On a Sunday, perhaps on your way to London, a visit to Elton could well be combined with Deene which is equally worthwhile and nearby and a visit to the Loch Fyne Seafood Restaurant (01832 280298) and the Walled Garden Centre (01832 280058) in the grounds of Elton Hall.
WALKS / JOGGING

The walk around the Hambleton peninsular starts with a hairpin right turn 200 yards past the Finch’s Arms on the Oakham road. It consists almost entirely of a rough road used only by the occasional fisherman. The circular route gives constantly changing views of the surrounding landscape and is strongly recommended. It is possible to shave a little off the distance by cutting home through the park and garden, (approx 1 1/2 hours).

A full circuit of the hides & tracks comprising the bird watching centre at Egleton involves around 2 1/2 miles walk.

Details of this and other walks in the neighbourhood are included in a pack in all guest rooms.

I have supplied Reception with details of a walk around the Grimsthorpe Park which takes you through the magnificent grove of ancient oaks. The shafting sunlight on a dappled fallow buck on a summer evening is a magical sight but don’t be late for dinner! (approx 2 hours) cycle hire is now possible there, (q.v. page 20).

The Bowthorpe Oak, in terms of girth England’s largest, is nearby, approx. 1 mile beyond Carby on the Stamford - Bourne Road. For a thorough inspection of this wonder pay a small fee to the Blanchard family (01778 590691) of Bowthorpe Park Farm. www.bowthorpeparkfarm.co.uk

A second walk for which a map is supplied involves a 6-7 mile circuit starting at the TV mast above Barleythorpe (approx 2 1/2 hours).

Recently a number of clients have much enjoyed walking around most of Rutland water from Manton to Barnsdale Lodge. This is not a complete circuit so you will need a taxi from Barnsdale to Manton to rejoin your car. (Approx 7 1/2 miles).

SAILING AND WINDSURFING

www.anglianwater.co.uk/leisure  rutlandwatersports@anglianwater.co.uk

With such a large expanse of water, 5 miles in length with a surface area of 3,100 acres, some fine sailing is found on Rutland Water.

Rutland Watersports Centre operates a day sailing centre at Whitwell (01780 460154) (See leaflets on Reception).

They also rent sailing dinghies (from £20.00 per hour). Rowing boats, paddleboards, canoes and kayaks can be hired which seats 1-6 persons (from £8.50 per person, per hour).

Beginners courses in sailing and windsurfing can be arranged. Sailing and windsurfing tuition from half day £85.00 per person to £160.00 for full day per person.

Personal tuition from £30 per person per hour for sailing and windsurfing - equipment hire extra.

The centre is open from Easter from 9.00am until 1 hour before dusk. They sell Chandlery, windsurfing equipment and leisure wear in the shop - Whitwell Watersports Centre.

Open April to September, 7 days - 9am - 6pm approx.
October to March, weekends only - 9am - 3pm approx.

AQUA WATER PARK

Your correspondent tested this facility in 2017 with 3 grandchildren. The shore facilities are a bit primitive and there is a certain amount of hanging around in a clammy wetsuit with bare feet on a muddy track. The course involves energetic swimming and negotiating inflatable leaps, slides, cliffs etc. Great fun for warm-blooded youths.
A.W.P. is the UK’s biggest inflatable water park. Reservations required for a 50 minute session. 25th May to 22nd September 2019, 7 days per week in July and August. Weekends in May, June and September.

CYCLING
A bicycle provides an excellent means to tour the quiet parts of Rutland. While there are many miles of traffic free tracks around Rutland Water and the Hambleton Peninsular, at busy periods when these tracks are infested with other cyclists I recommend that you head off to the unspoilt lanes around Braunston. We have cycles available for hire on-site (£8 half day, £14 full day) or a wide selection of machines including electrics are available from Whitwell, from £19.99, www.rutlandcycling.com

An Ordnance Survey Map showing recommended cycling routes is kept at Reception.

Why not make use of the new cycle hire facility at Grimsthorpe Castle (q.v. page 20) to tour the magnificent park, hire available. Similar machines are available from Whitwell and Normanton. Tel: (01780) 460705 or (01780) 720888.

Open All Year 9.00am - 5.00pm for rentals and shop opening (closed 25th and 26th December)

MOTOR SPORT
Former F1 racing driver Jonathan Palmer specialises in providing small groups with a remarkable driving experience at his circuit near Bedford. A variety of incredibly fast cars are available and Palmer allows drivers far more freedom to drive fast than any similar organisation. Riding/Carriage Driving
Gail Newcombe, Somerby Riding School
Telephone: (01664) 454838
Gail’s operation is well geared to the needs of our clients and is situated in a very beautiful area well equipped with bridleways. Gail can offer lessons, hacks or 1/2 day rides in which you would get a good look at some of our most attractive county and has now established her new indoor and outdoor menage and cross country course. (Riding hats and boots can be supplied). www.somerbyequestriancentre.co.uk

Foxhunting
Fox hunting in its modern form was developed by Tom Noel at Exton in the early 18th century. The sport has had a profound influence on our landscape, economy and population.

Traditional fox-hunting was outlawed in 2005 by legislation promoted by well meaning animal lovers (who thought, wrongly the change would be in the foxes’ best interest) allied with spiteful toff-haters. Local hunts still meet and sally forth with their hounds but they do not have the intention of catching a fox.

The repeal of this ludicrous legislation is eagerly awaited in Rutland. Meanwhile we would be delighted to arrange for keen equestrians who have innocent intentions to accompany one of our local packs.
SHOOTING
There are a number of excellent pheasant and partridge shoots near Hambleton which are available by the day for parties of around 8 guns. The hotel will introduce shooting parties directly to the shoot to conduct their own negotiations.

SWIMMING
Inspire2tri are partnered with Anglian Water to provide Open Water Swimming (Whitwell site) throughout the season (May to September), every Sunday 8.00am - 10.00am, subject to water temperature being 11c or above and wetsuits optional at or above 14c! Booking essential, £8.50, wetsuit hire available. www.inspire2tri.com Telephone (01572) 244224.

ROCK CLIMBING
Easter to the end of October

The Rock Blok is located on the north shore of Rutland Water at Whitwell, adjacent to the cycle hire centre. The four faces of the 8m cliff offer climbing possibilities with various degrees of difficulty. If you are already proficient you can shin up and down at your leisure or you can be taught the basic techniques in a private lesson. There is also an 8m high rope adventure course and a trampoline.

There are daily taster sessions, prices from £6.99 x 2 climbs, £10.99 x 4 climbs, £15.99 2 x climbs and high rope.

Seasonal opening times apply.
There is an excellent equipment shop next door.

FISHING
Rutland Water is well stocked with both brown and rainbow trout of a good size, pike and zander also available. In order to fish you need:
A rod licence (purchase online from the Environment Agency.)
Day permit £28.00 (maximum 8 fish) or Half day permit (5 hours) £25.00 (maximum 4 fish)
or Sporting ticket (catch & release) £23.00
Season Dates:
Commence 8th March 2019
Brown Trout 1st April to 30th October (1 per day)
Rainbow Trout 8th March to 31st January

In addition your chances will be improved if you hire a motor boat which can be hired for the day (£27 for 2/3). Telephone (01780) 686800. The Authority allows fishermen to take out a boat alone if you have a mobile phone. Boats, licences, permits, etc. are obtained from the new fishing lodge at Normanton, (01780) 686441.

You may further improve your chances by securing the services of Rob Waddington at Rutland Fly Fishing Adventures (01572 722422 or 07711 182853) who will act as ghillie, improve your casting or suggest the deadliest fly.
BIRDS
Rutland Water has become a Mecca for birdwatchers because of its large resident population of water birds, waders, glamorous migrants and visitors. (Ospreys, Hobby, Terns etc. etc.)

The starting point for birding is the impressive visitor centre at Egleton (01572 770651) which can hire binoculars if you do not have your own, and has recently installed a remotely controlled TV camera to spy on nesting birds who think they are nesting in privacy on a remote island.

Open all year, 9.00am - 5.00pm daily. Day permit £6.00 Adult, £5.00 OAP’s, Junior/Student £16.00 family. On a recent visit in March with an enthusiastic pal we counted 47 species in a 3 hour stroll around the hides.

If you would like a specialist to show you around we can usually arrange for a warden or voluntary warden to accompany you. They offer a two hour walk for £120.00 for 1-15 people. Contact (01572) 720049.

There is also a smaller visitor centre at Lyndon, which has some lovely walks and one of the hides has an excellent view of the 2011 Osprey nesting site. Open 9.00am - 5.00pm Daily in Summer, 11.00am - 3.00pm Saturdays and Sundays in Winter - weather/volunteers permitting.

HOT AIR BALLOONING

A surprising and benign consequence of the growing importance of the internet is the ability of world class specialist businesses to thrive in the sticks. For more than 30 years Mike Goldmark has been building a gallery dealing in contemporary art. These days he holds an enormous stock of graphics, drawings, watercolours and oils by a range of artists which include, Picasso, Matisse, Chagall, Goya, Dürer and from more recent times, Hockney, Frink, Piper, Moore and Sutherland. You could buy a Francis Bacon for a few million but, fear not, plenty of business is still done in the £500-£10,000 price range and the gallery still champions a range of more or less local artists such as Rigby Graham and George Large.

The outstanding ceramics department has developed over the last decade; the shop next door is now Goldmark Pots; and showcasing top ceramic artists from all over the world.

The quiet voiced and beaming proprietor is almost always on hand and if you arrive around 1.00pm there is a good chance of being offered lunch - a kind of communal affair featuring Mike's favourite food, our Borodinski Bread!

You don’t have to go to Mayfair if you are looking for fine paintings! Rutland may be England’s smallest county, but Peter Barker Fine Art has earned a reputation as a top provincial gallery. Owned and run by professional artist, Peter Barker, and his delightful other half Jane, only the very best modern painters are given wall space.

Besides Peter’s own much sought-after British landscapes and wildlife, the Gallery boasts a stellar cast of gifted, working artists from across Britain and beyond, exhibiting exceptional, original work. These include David Curtis, Peter Brown, Jamel Akib, Carl Knibb, Jennifer McChristian, John Lines, Trevor Lingard and Graham Webber (see website for full list).

When Peter is not painting ‘en plein air’, you may find him ‘hard at it’ in the studio at the far end of the gallery. With nearly 40 years’ painting experience, he is always available to ‘talk shop’ with great enthusiasm, and has a personal affiliation, friendship, respect and in-depth knowledge of all the artists he represents.

Peter Barker Fine Art is situated in an ancient walkway just off Uppingham’s historic High Street (which offers two-hours free parking, as well as an adjacent pay-and-display car park, just yards from the gallery), so if you are a discerning art collector, and want to avoid the hectic pace of life in the capital, PBFA is a must-visit on your trip to Rutland!

Rachel Simpson is an exceptionally knowledgeable buyer and restorer of rugs. She trained as a weaver, spent 6 years in India teaching restoration and now presides over a small and quirky building in the centre of Uppingham.

When I visited, the ground floor was partly occupied by a lovely antique carpet undergoing restoration. I was much taken with an antique kazakh and a glorious runner, as well as a modern piece by Rex Roy.

I was also most impressed to note that like all great carpet dealers she employs a young and cheerful fellow who unrolls the rugs and ties them up again. Plus two other delightful ladies who restore rugs in house are always happy to help.

This mix of contemporary and antique works very well.

Stainby is in the middle of nowhere, although only 15 minutes from Hambleton, and The Barn feels quite remote even in the context of Stainby, down a lane which starts alongside the church.

Barry Spencer can hopefully supply all your needs in the renovation of period and old houses. He has been in the business for over 40 years and most items required for the renovation of old homes can be sourced from Barry.

As well as c.1,000 doors, Elizabethan through to Edwardian, Barry specialises in the supply of good quality reclaimed York stone from the north of England and new limestone flooring. You will also find stone arches, follies, cobblestones for courtyards, garden steps, roofing tiles and stone garden ornaments. In addition, an interest in antique furniture and interior decor items, has led to Barry sourcing a small range of unique items which are available to purchase.

Barry is available by appointment and always willing to help and offer valuable advice from his years of knowledge and experience. Advisory service available on-site on an hourly basis.

If by chance you are in the process of doing up a property, you might well find an outing to Stainby worthwhile.

Paul Baines bespoke upholstery and curtain business based in Oakham is descended indirectly from a huge and thriving business, which in the foxhunting boom of the 1880s (when Hambleton Hall was built) kept 140 horses to deliver curtains, carpets, uniforms, furnishings etc all around this area. Nowadays Paul Baines employs the same craft skills to make sofas, arm chairs, curtains etc to order. Many Hambleton clients will have sat on one or other of his masterpieces!

His enlarged showroom on Northgate houses a huge range of pattern books from which you can choose your materials, and his work is just as suited to contemporary as to classical interiors.

Brian Cooper runs this old established firm (Est. 1926) and has been looking after Hambleton Hall clients since we opened in 1980. The cars, Mercedes, Volvos and VW people carriers are comfortable, air conditioned and well maintained, the drivers smart and knowledgeable. They are very familiar with the area and the country houses, antique shops, etc. which our clients like to visit and equally important, have excellent knowledge of Central London and the airports.
It’s quite a surprise to find an 11,500sq’ showroom some half-mile from the centre of Oakham and five minutes from Hambleton. It is filled with gleaming supercars, sports cars, Bentleys, Range Rovers and more. Porsche, Ferrari and Aston Martin have multiple representations at the time of writing and every car is beautifully presented. Most are new or nearly new. Many models have long waiting lists and a shortage of supply.

This unusual resource has been developed since 2001 by the Freimuth family; father Tommy and his sons Charles and Tim. They are on hand to share their enthusiasm and advise on purchase or sale.

Whenever I see from the Hambleton Hall car park that we have an enthusiast for high-end motor cars in the house, I point them in the direction of TOP 555 and their unparalleled collection. Invariably they pass a happy hour in the company of the Freimuths’ and their amazing stock.

Ben Robson and his wife Emma preside over this unconventional shop specialising in Italian wine, situated in a warehouse in an old prison, now a trading estate, on the edge of Oakham (good for parking). Ben indulges a long-held enthusiasm for interesting wines from smaller producers throughout Italy. A small additional selection covers a few worthwhile extras, including some excellent gins. His stock is strong on medium-priced wines for everyday but comfortably includes collectables such as Barolo, Brunello etc.

They ship some huge bottles that would make great presents, a strong selection of sparklers: Prosecco, Spumante, Franciacorta and, quite uncharacteristically, Champagne, which, true-to-form is from a small grower producer. With their excellent selection, Bat & Bottle is a very worthwhile address for lovers of Italian wine.

So much for the Bottles. The bats referred to cricket bats rather than Ben’s mental health. From time to time, he has some single-estate, handmade cricket bats lurking for sale!

In the last couple of years, Bat & Bottle’s wine club was shortlisted as IWCs wine club of the year; they were selected as one of UKs 100 small businesses to represent Small Business Saturday and finalists in the Italian Awards for best wine list.

Opening Times
Monday – Friday 9.30am-4pm (it is wise to call first as they can be working away during the week) Every third Saturday of the month (when it is also Farmers Market in Oakham) the warehouse is open 9.30am-5pm with wines open to be tasted.

The bakery opened on September 1st 2008. Head baker Julian Carter was sous-chef at Hambleton Hall for 9 years. Julian’s father and many generations of forebears were all bakers and he brings to our own bakery tremendous knowledge and boundless enthusiasm.

We specialise in traditional breads made using long and slow fermentations. Many clients take home a couple of sourdough or “local” loaves for the freezer.

We also make a range of additive free cakes and savouries including the “Pippin” a little pie that makes a fine snack on your way home.

A visit to the bakery can be fun. Julian is proud of his Artoslex mixer and wood-fired oven, and loves to explain the difference between his products and “factory” equivalents.

The bakery now has six shops or you can order our products for collection at Hambleton Hall.

Saint Augustine (354-430 AD) wrote “Dilige et quod vis fac”. “Love - and do as you please”. More than 1000 years later Francois Rabelais (1494?-1553) in ‘Gargantua’ has as a hero of his story the Abbot of Thélème who is rewarded for warlike deeds by the gift of his own Abbey. The motto which the unusual abbot uses for his abbey is “Fay Ce Que Voudras” - “Do as you please” in old French. It is notable that he has cheekily used only the second half of St. Augustine’s precept, the meaning of which might be different without the preliminary ‘Love’ which presumably meant - “Love God” and/or your neighbour.

In 1750 Sir Francis Dashwood, John Wilkes and others restored Medmenham Abbey near Henley and used the place as the headquarters of the Hell Fire Club. Inspired by Rabelais the motto inscribed over the door and fireplace was “Fay Ce Que Voudras”.

Wilkes described the activities of the Hell Fire Club in the following terms:

“a set of worthy, jolly fellows, happy disciples of Venus and Bacchus, got occasionally together to celebrate women in wine, and to give more zest to the festive meeting they plucked every luxurious idea from the ancients and enriched their own modern pleasures with the tradition of classical luxury.”

During the 19th century Medmenham became a popular tourist attraction and some of the more prudish Victorians convinced themselves that the Hell Fire Club were Devil Worshippers, but Wilkes description of their activities seems to have been more accurate.

It is entirely consistent with what we know of Walter Marshall that he should have chosen “Fay Ce Que Voudras” as the motto of his newly built Rutland hunting-box in 1881. He may have read Rabelais, more likely he had visited Medmenham and knew all about the antics of the Hell Fire Club in the previous century.

Marshall, as we know from his scrap-book and his contemporary reputation, was suffocated by the prudishness of the mid-Victorian era, and was inclined to cock a snook at the prevailing morality of his age. “Nunc Hora Bibendi” (“now is the time for a drink”) appears on the sundial on the south front of Hambleton Hall. He could not have chosen a more appropriate motto for his front door than “Fay Ce Que Voudras”.

“Fay Ce Que Voudras”
